ST. LUCIA'S COCO PALM LAUNCHES KREOLE ROOMS, FAMILY SUITES & CONFERENCE FACILITIES

RODNEY BAY VILLAGE, St. Lucia (February 2009) – Coco Palm, St. Lucia's award-winning boutique hotel, has opened up new rooms, family suites and a conference center in Rodney Bay Village, located in the north of the island.

Celebrating its third anniversary, Coco Palm debuted its new Kreole Rooms in time for the 2009 edition of Caribbean Marketplace, which was held on the island from January 18 to 20.

The new Kreole Rooms at Coco Palm, part of the adjacent and former Coco Kreole property, offers EP rates starting at US$125 per night. Recently upgraded, it is just a short walk from a wide selection of popular St. Lucian bars and restaurants, featuring French Creole, Thai and tapas themed cuisine.

In addition to Kreole Rooms, Coco Palm now has four 600 square feet Family Suites offering a master bedroom, flat screen television, iPod docking station and cordless phones with the ensuite master bathroom offering both a shower and Victorian roll top tub. The adjoining room offers two twin beds, cable television, DVD player and ensuite bathroom, and is easily able to accommodate two children 16 years or younger.

A newly built Conference Center, centrally located in the heart of Rodney Bay Village adjacent to the Kreole Rooms, opened in January. The traditional chattel house-styled meeting room accommodates up to 90 people and is equipped with wireless internet access, with secretarial services available at Kreole Rooms. In addition, Coco Palm has added the Cäribe boutique shop along with poolside showers and bathroom facilities.

Located in the heart of St Lucia's entertainment capital, the award-winning Coco Palm caters to the savvy traveler looking for a chic boutique hotel with affordable rates and uncompromising standards of style and service.
